

TANJA PEKEZ-PAVLISKO

Medical school at Univesity Banja Luka 1985.

Moved to Zagreb in 1989.

Residency in emergency medicine

Postgraduate course in clinical pharmacology, postgraduate course in emergency medicine and family medicine and PhD course Medical school at Zagreb University.

Before residency in family medicine, had great experience in prehospital emergency care.

ALS instructor, ITLS medical director for the Croatia, participating in few mass casualties courses.

Organiser of several courses for KoHOM

President of organising committee of KoHOM congresses 2013 and 2014

President of organising committee of Wonca Rural Health Congres in Dubrovnik 2015. EURIPA executive and Co-chair of Wonca Working Party on Rural Practice.

Evaluator and reviewer in French and Europeans general practice conferences

Special interests: domestic violence, patient safety, education, emergency medicine